BILLIARDS & SNOOKER

Peter Twigg wins the '95 Annual Snooker Tournament

Despite winning the first frame, Brae Antcliffe was unable to stop a late charge by a determined Peter Twigg who wore Brae down and forged a magnificent 2-1 victory and a place on the Championship Board. It was a great game and hard fought by both players, but unfortunately there can only be one winner. Congratulations Peter!

There is the possibility that the Twigg name could appear twice if Peter's son Mark is able to triumph over Denis Pidcock in the Billiards Handicap. John Simpson who won the Club's Snooker & Billiards Championship, yet again, will also be placed on the Championship Board.

Once again, the success of this year's tournament was a tribute to both Doug Jordan (handicapper) and Paddy Morgan (referee & coach) who were both extensively involved in the organisation of the event. The Billiards & Snooker Sub-Committee as a whole put in a tremendous amount of effort in organising this year's activities and should be congratulated on their success. In addition, the Club is extremely grateful to the regular sponsors of the Billiards and Snooker Handicap tournaments - Rod Morton, Bill Hurley, Bruce McHugh, Doug Jordan, Peter Twigg and Adrian Griffiths.

This finalises the calendar for 1995 which in retrospect has been a tremendously successful year for the snooker players. New records were set for the prize pool, the number of black ball games and the Snooker Sub-Committee gained a new sponsor in the form of Eddie Crane who sponsored three Crystal Challenge competitions. The Interclub Competition was another highlight, with the Tattersall's Team bringing home the trophy.

New Teams Competition

In response to a large amount of interest by members, the Snooker Sub-Committee intends to organise a new team-based competition to be played in the evenings commencing in 1996. Members interested in organising a team or playing for the Club in the Interclub Competition in 1996 should contact Andrew Bald via the Snooker Room.

New Players are Welcome

There has been a large amount of interest from new members in playing in the tournaments next year, and we encourage all players or prospective players to contact Doug Jordan or Paddy Morgan in February next year. In the meantime all Club members are welcome to have a game.

Congratulations once again to all the winners and better luck next year to all those who gave their all but were beaten on the day. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from the Snooker Sub-Committee.

SWIMMING

Activities of Tattersall's Swimmers concluded for the year with a flourish with the Championships, Annual Point Scores, Final Monthly and the ever-popular Christmas Scramble being determined. Results were:

EPICUREAN CHRISTMAS PARTY

The early Christmas Party was a spectacular evening and an excellent finale to celebrate the Epicureans end to '95. The band "The Excellent Iguanas" were magnificent setting the mood with background and dance music in their well known Latin American and Jazz style.

Full compliments to Michael Browne, the Food & Beverage Manager, for his organisation of the setting of the function room with the tables clustered and facing towards Hyde Park with the band in the centre providing the focal point, it was perfect. With daylight saving and a hot balmy night, Hyde Park is a brilliant back drop.

All beverages for the evening were Spanish making an interesting change - even to the point of Spanish beer. The food was at its best with a great selection to suit all tastes.

Thomas Bourke was there in force with his wife and guests to celebrate their friend Raye Burton's birthday. With a touch of truce Christmas and birthday spirit a bottle of Licor Charentay Tres was presented by the Club.

John Tierney, Club Committeeman, was there enjoying himself to the hilt clinging to the last moments of the night. His final touch to the evening was providing a conducted tour through the hallowed grounds of the Athletic Department. (Thank you John.)

During the year the Epicureans have enjoyed some very special evenings. Our two wine sponsored functions will be hard to improve on. Tyrrell's and McGuigans wines were magnificent and who better to present their wines than Murray Tyrrell and Brian McGuigan.

We have some very interesting evenings planned for next year and will keep you informed with Newsletters and mailouts.
